OF UNITED NISSAN

Honoring
DON & LORIE
FORMAN
OF UNITED NISSAN

Don and Lorie Forman both moved to Las Vegas in the mid '90s. Don is from Seattle and Lorie is from Long Island, NY.

In spring 2003, Don was given the opportunity to buy United Auto Group after rising through the car automotive ranks and has owned and operated United Nissan ever since. He expanded in Las Vegas and, at one point, owned 6 different franchises. Most recently, Don owned additional Nissan franchises in Tustin, Corona and San Diego.

Lorie, an IFBB professional bikini competitor, is the foundation behind the Forman family. In addition to her career in fitness and the family's charity interests, Lorie keeps a full schedule with the couple's four children, Karl, Alex, Ashlee, and Alexis.

Don and Lorie are extremely committed to our Las Vegas and Henderson communities. Both enjoy donating to our military, local law enforcement, school districts and Hispanic community. Don also sits on the board of the Latin Chamber Community Foundation.

If you ask Don and Lorie about their favorite opportunity to give, unanimously they would respond with the Fox 5 Surprise Squad.

"The joy you get from giving in such a spontaneous situation is hard to duplicate. We know that every dollar donated is going straight to whomever needs it. The hardest part is holding back your own emotions when you know that you have helped change someone's course in life or just made their day a bit brighter," said Lorie Forman.

Both Don and Lorie enjoy various hobbies like collecting classic cars and wine. They also live spending time at their home in Dana Point, California.
